

Satisfy Your Sweet Tooth

Three crave worthy desserts at The Village at Pacific Highlands Ranch

February 24, 2017

If you find yourself in North County with a hankering for something sweet, look no further than swinging by The Village at Pacific Highlands Ranch. Why you may ask? These three drool-worthy reasons to make your eyes sparkle and tantalize those taste buds.

1 The Baked Bear

Who doesn't love ice cream sandwiched between two freshly-baked cookies or brownies? The Baked Bear has over a dozen original-recipe cookies and ice cream flavors, along with countless toppings. From Fruity Pebbles to rainbow sprinkles, you can roll your choice of 'scream with whatever your candy heart desires. They're known for their monstrous ice cream sandwiches and serving up some of the sweetest sweets on this side of the Mississipp'.

1 Nothing Bundt Cakes

Oh boy. These tasty, delicate Bundt Cakes are a must have! Topped with fluffy, creamy icing and made with love, you can't go wrong with one of these bad boys. From Red Velvet (packed with chocolate chips) to the classic Carrot Cake, there is something for everyone. Fluffy, moist and delicious, enjoy with friends or order up the Bundtini if you're flying solo.

Get free real-time news alerts from the Del Mar-Carmel Valley Patch.

1 WESTROOT

If you have a little time to sit down and enjoy your sinful indulgence, head over to WESTROOT and order the WESTROOT Beer Float. Built in a classic beer mug, a few heaping scoops of popcorn ice cream float above ice cold root beer, which is then topped with caramelized popcorn. This one brings back memories.

Satisfy that sweet tooth at one of these sinfully-delicious spots next time you're in Carmel Valley. You won't regret it!