

San Diego Kids Weekend Events: June 15-17

Happy Father's Day weekend! We've found the best events happening around the city that dads are sure to love! From setting sail after eating bratwursts and beer or enjoying train rides and a BBQ lunch to watching a professional soccer match or attending the first-ever InterGalactiCon, read on to see where to show pop he's tops!

Carmel Valley

Day of the Dad

Searching for the perfect way to spend Father's Day? The Village at Pacific Highlands Ranch is doing it up this Father's Day with an event that honors all dads! The Mint Studio DIY craft terrace will be set up in the Village Square, where loved ones can choose to make exciting gifts for dad such as custom wood-burnished grill boards, hand-stamped metal and leather items, personalized aprons and oven/grill mitts, plus a handsome variety of wood signs. Take your pick of your gift and enjoy a crafting session. As for eats and drinks, restaurants in The Village will provide a celebratory selection of $5 tastings for dads. He is invited to sample bourbon from Westroot, sake at Wokou, tequila at Casa Rustica, and frosty beer compliments of the new Breakfast Republic to help dad feel on top. End the day with a BBQ for the whole family hosted in the Village Square, featuring the signature tastes of Westroot Tavern cuisine and delicioso street tacos from Casa Rustica. Sun. Event details.