

Your Guide to Dining on Dad's Day

The saying goes, “the best way to a man’s heart is through his stomach.” Show dad how much you care by taking him out to one of San Diego’s top restaurants. We’ve rounded up some of the best Father’s Day deals, from the best drink and beer specials to non other than smoked steaks and meats. Check out who made our list for this year’s Father’s Day Celebrations.

GREYSTONE PRIME STEAKHOUSE & SEAFOOD

Courtesy Photo

Sophisticated Gaslamp staple Greystone Prime Steakhouse & Seafood has crafted not one, but two pre-fixe menu options to pamper the fathers in your life. Set in a classy and elegant dining room overlooking 5th Avenue, Greystone's pre-set three-course Father's Day options promise to add a special something to your fine-dining festivities. Featuring savory share plates, refreshing salads, and entrees including Buffalo Tenderloin, tender Lamb Chops, juicy USDA Prime New York Strip, Bone-In Ribeye, and fall-off-the-bone Lamb Shank, dad will feel the love with every mouthwatering bite. Upgrade your experience with free-flowing craft beer for an additional $25 per person, or experience local craft beer or Japanese whisky flight specials for dads.

THE VILLAGE AT PACIFIC HIGHLANDS RANCH

It can be tough to find the perfect celebration for the man who gives you everything, but a barbecue and crafting session complete with a cocktail tasting for dad comes pretty close. This Father's Day, The Village at Pacific Highlands Ranch is doing it up for their Day of the Dad event with some fun in the sun for fathers and families. A DIY craft terrace by Mint Studio will be set up in the Village Square for families to make custom gifts for dad while he samples a variety of alcohols with celebratory $5 tastings at Westroot Tavern, Wokou Ramen, Casa Rustica, and Breakfast Republic, all culminating in a family barbeque hosted by local eateries.

THE WHISKEY HOUSE

If your father is a fan of the wide world of whiskey, there's no better place to celebrate than premier bar and lounge The Whiskey House. Famously home to California's largest selection of whiskeys with over 2,500 diverse bottles and an extensive list of craft cocktails, there's no shortage of festive toasts this Father's Day. Raise a glass to dad with their Father's Day Happy Hour special of $4 Kronenberg Parisian Lager and a $1 shot of house whiskey from 4:00 P.M. to 7:00 P.M., paired with their house-made sausages, burgers, and smoky-flavored bites.

WOODSTOCK'S PIZZA

Courtesy Photo

Don't make dad fire up the grill on his special day – make Father's Day dining easy for the whole family with Woodstock's Pizza. With plenty of space and an extensive menu of tasty options for everyone, this popular favorite of college students and locals alike fills dad's stomach with fun food to please every picky palate. Feed the entire family this Father's Day with their Legendary Deal #4, an XL pizza with one topping, a large Brother Tom's Salad, and a regular Cinnabread for only $27.95.

THE RAIL

Iconic Hillcrest bar and exciting new foodie spot The Rail is bringing the music for your Father's Day festivities. Featuring a live performer during the day, dad can groove to his own beat while enjoying a complimentary ice-cold domestic beer to sip on. Munch on bar bites including spicy wings, classic sliders, and prosciutto-topped mac & cheese while humming along to soft acoustic music at this Prohibition-themed spot that's perfect for a warm Father's Day afternoon.