Who doesn't love a good breakfast sandwich? Start your day with a combo of eggs, meat and cheese all prepared to perfection, and served smack in the middle of thick bread or toast. Check out any of these San Diego spots with the most appetizing morning 'wiches!

Breakfast Republic is conveniently located across the city in neighborhoods from North Park to the Village at Pacific Highlands Ranch in Carmel Valley, Ocean Beach to Pacific Beach. This means you've got no excuse not to enjoy the most important meal of the day at this fun and unpretentious joint. Of all the tasty menu items, you've got to try the Breakfast Sammie. Served with a side of house potatoes, this sandwich consists of sourdough bread, eggs (sunny side up), tomato, herb spread and Breakfast Republic's Jurassic pork bacon – thick cut bacon marinated and baked with paprika and brown sugar.

On the corner Santa Clara Court and Mission Boulevard, Miss B's Coconut Club is serving up island-inspired fare and cocktails with rum as the star ingredient. If you're looking for a laid-back, patio where you can indulge for breakfast, Miss B's is your place. Feel the first rays of the morning sun hit your back, as you bite into their classic Breakfast Sandwich. Scrambled eggs, jerk-peppered apple-wood smoked bacon, gruyere cheese and cilantro aioli between a kolache roll will have you feeling fine and ready to take on the day ahead!

On any given Saturday or Sunday, venture down to the Gaslamp District to see what The Smoking Gun's Walk of Champagne Brunch is all about. Filled with biscuits and other savory dishes like the Breakfast Sliders, you'll have a tough time deciding what to get! Let us make it easy for you – the bacon, egg, cheddar cheese and cayenne aioli smothered on the sliders is a must-try. It also comes served with potato hash. You'll want to wash your meal down with one of The Smoking Gun's iconic cocktails, such as the Frosé adult frozen slushie made with rosé, strawberry and lemon.

Cruise down to Pacific Beach to experience breakfast at the beach-side community's premier lounge and eatery, The Duck Dive. Bottomless mimosas on the weekend and a menu of coastal favorites make for an ideal place to spend your morning. Especially when you order the Dive Griddle Sandwich, made with a fennel sausage patty, sunny side up egg, avocado, tomato and arugula all between hotcakes infused with a jalapeño maple syrup. Yum!

Nautilus Tavern, a La Jolla neighborhood bar and grill, has quickly become a favorite spot for visitors and locals alike. Catch a sports game or request to sit out on the back patio to enjoy the spring weather when you dine at this modern-coastal destination. Stop by for brunch any day of the week and order The Sandy, a delectable breakfast sandwich with pepper jack cheese, two over-medium eggs, spinach, tomato, bacon and tavern sauce served on grilled sourdough bread. You can even add avocado for a few extra bucks. This sandwich is so good, you'll become a frequent visitor to Nautilus Tavern just to get your hands on it!
